

Derrick Williams

Director, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion | Responsible Gambling Liaison

Derrick Williams is a day-one Team Member at Mohegan Sun, with experience across several departments including Marketing, Hotel Operations, Transportation, and now Human Resources, where he serves as the Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

In his current role, Derrick leads initiatives that foster a more inclusive and respectful workplace, supporting Team Member engagement, wellness, education, and training—with a strong focus on building empathy and understanding across the organization. His training programs have helped increase cultural awareness, improve communication, and strengthen team collaboration across departments.

As the Responsible Gambling Liaison, Derrick also champions efforts to promote responsible play and raise awareness around prevention and recovery. He coordinates campaigns like “Winning Starts With Responsible Play” and organizes educational and training events during awareness months and throughout the year.
